

PLASTIC SURGERY (PSU)

School of Medicine

PSU 460 – Clinical Plastic Surgery Elective (1-18 units)

Course Description: Total involvement in patient care involving surgical preparation, treatment, operative care, and follow-up. Developing and understanding reconstruction and aesthetic plastic surgery. Microvascular surgery included. Student rotation.

Prerequisite(s): SUR 430; and consent of instructor; third- or fourth-year medical students.

Learning Activities: Clinical Activity.

Grade Mode: Honors/Pass/Fail.