

SOCIAL, ETHNIC & GENDER RELATIONS, MINOR

College of Letters & Science

The interdisciplinary minor in Social, Ethnic & Gender Relations explores the racial, ethnic, class, and gender aspects of human relations in the modern world. Students study human societies and cultures from a multi-ethnic perspective and across established academic departmental lines. The minor is jointly sponsored by African American & African Studies, American Studies, Asian American Studies, Chicana/o Studies, Native American Studies, and Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies.

Advising

Katherine Ampaw-Matthei, kampaw@ucdavis.edu; Jeremiah Thompson, thompso@ucdavis.edu (jthomspo@ucdavis.edu)

Code	Title	Units
Choose one upper division course from five of the following six groups to total 20 units:		20
(1) African American & African Studies. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/aas/)
(2) Asian American Studies. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/asa/)
(3) Chicana/o Studies. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/chi/)
(4) Gender, Sexuality & Women's Studies. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/gsw/)
(5) Native American Studies. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/nas/)
(6) American Studies; with Domestic Diversity GE designation. (https://catalog.ucdavis.edu/courses-subject-code/ams/)
Restriction
No more than one course applied toward the satisfaction of a major may be offered in satisfaction of the minor.
Total Units		20