

EDUCATION, DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY

School of Education

Francisco (Paco) Martorell, Ph.D., GGE Chair; term ends June 30, 2026

Graduate Study

The Graduate Group in Education offers programs of study and research leading to the Ph.D. degree. Students may concentrate in; language, literacy and culture; learning and mind sciences; mathematics education; school organization and educational policy; or science and agriculture education. Students may also combine these fields of study with designated emphasis areas such as Critical Theory; Second Language Acquisition, Women's Studies, and Writing, Rhetoric, and Composition Studies. Detailed information regarding graduate study may be obtained by writing the Graduate Coordinator or see Education Ph.D. Program (<https://education.ucdavis.edu/phd-education/>).

Preparation

Students should have earned a Bachelor's or M.A. degree or the equivalent in a discipline relevant to their proposed emphasis program. For example, students applying for the mathematics education emphasis should have earned the B.A. or M.A. or M.A.T. degree in mathematics or mathematics education.
