Program of Study

The UC Davis Graduate School of Management offers a minor in Technology Management to undergraduate students. This minor complements students' undergraduate studies with courses in the ways in which engineering and science-based industrial enterprises manage and use knowledge from science, engineering and technology. The minor also provides students with business and management skills that should enable them to use their education more effectively in a technology environment.

The Technology Management minor courses are open to all undergraduate and graduate majors at UC Davis.

The courses that count for the Technology Management minor are offered by the Graduate School of Management. No substitutions (e.g., transfer courses, study abroad courses, or other UC Davis courses) are allowed for the upper division coursework.

No course overlap is allowed with other minors. No more than one course can be counted towards both the student's major and the minor.

Prerequisites for minor courses are required (e.g., MGT 011A and STA 013 for MGT 160; MGT 011A and MGT 011B for MGT 170). Please plan accordingly.

The OASIS Minor Declaration form will only be approved after the student is enrolled in the final course for the minor, one minor course has been successfully completed, and minor GPA is at least 2.000.

Important: Only one course may overlap between major and minor requirements. If MGT 011A is used for completing a major requirement, then further minor coursework cannot be counted toward major requirements.
